A New Adventure in Sunriver, Oregon

A Love to Treasure: Book 1 in New Series, SUNRIVER DREAMS Releases

WHITE SALMON, Wash., JUNE. 1, 2016 — Multi-published author, Kimberly Rose Johnson, releases new, Central Oregon-located romance series, SUNRIVER DREAMS.

Elementary school teacher Nicole Davis travels to Sunriver, Oregon, to fulfill her grandmother's deathbed wish for one final adventure: a scavenger hunt. But what Nicole doesn't expect is meeting Mark Stone, a policeman spending a quiet summer to contemplate his future in law enforcement after the death of his partner. As if the confusing scavenger hunt wasn't enough excitement, a series of burglaries are plaguing Nicole's street, leaving the police without a clue. It's up to Nicole and Mark to solve the game, solve the crime, and figure out if their own relationship is an answer to their mutually questioned futures.

At under two-hundred pages, A Love to Treasure is a quick, but effective mental vacation for the upcoming summer. Women's groups will find it a refreshing break from heavier reads while using the topic of loss and grief recovery as a springboard to discussion. A Love to Treasure opens the doors for a new brand series with a new selection of relatable characters and sweet romance from previous Love Inspired Heartsong Presents author, Kimberly Rose Johnson.

Kimberly Rose Johnson lives in the Pacific Northwest and writes sweet inspirational romance. She married her college sweetheart 25 years ago. Her hobbies include reading, watching chick flicks, playing the piano, long walks with her hubby and their yellow lab, drinking coffee and eating dark chocolate. Kimberly holds a degree in Behavioral Science and is a member of ACFW.
