Debut Author Spins Romantic, Action-Packed Adventure in the North Cascades

Gayla K. Hiss Releases Avalanche (Peril in the Park, #1)

WHITE SALMON, Wash., JAN. 2, 2017 — Author Gayla K. Hiss debuts with a “bang!” in Avalanche, book one in the four-book romantic suspense series, PERIL IN THE PARK.

When Park Ranger Jenny Snowfeather runs into Deputy Marshal Chase Matthews at her brother’s Fourth of July barbecue, she suspects there is more going on in Eagle Valley, WA than fireworks. After Chase confides that he believes the fugitive who killed his partner may be hiding out in the area, Jenny is skeptical at first. But when her peaceful town is besieged with a sudden crime spree, she realizes Chase’s theory may be true. Jenny risks everything to help Chase. Will the enemy get away with murder? Will Jenny and Chase reach safety, and more importantly, return to the God who controls it all? One step in the wrong direction could mean the difference between life and death.

Set in the beautiful Cascade Mountains, Avalanche will connect with the hearts of nature enthusiasts. Jenny Snowfeather sets an excellent example for the care and love of all life, including the importance of wildlife preservation. Animal lovers will find their hearts understood as Hiss paints the great outdoors and much of its inhabitants with vivacity and character.

Study groups will also find valuable content in Hiss’ study of forgiveness and being forgiven. Avalanche speaks strongly to the connection between grace and justice without invalidating the power and necessity of both. While animal enthusiasts will fall in love with Jenny, readers dealing with their own struggles of moving past trauma and pain will find a friend in Chase Matthews.

Avalanche is book one in PERIL IN THE PARK. Look for book two, Dangerous Ground, Fall 2017.

Gayla K. Hiss’ writing journey began with her hobby of painting landscapes. In her vivid imagination, characters and scenes came to life as she painted scenes with beautiful natural settings. Her inspiring novels combine her love for the great outdoors with romance, suspense, and adventure.

She has been a finalist in the Daphne du Maurier contest and the Pacific Northwest Writers Association literary contest, and is a member of several writing organizations. She has also had the privilege of working for the Navy, NASA, and two Fortune 100 companies as a software engineer, and has a bachelor’s and a master’s degree in engineering.
